
JOLIE GOODMAN CV:

Jolie Goodman

Address: 53 East Dulwich Grove, London SE22 8PR

Mobile: 079313476

Email: joliegoodman@gmail.com

JOLIE GOODMAN, SUMMARY OF ARTISTIC CAREER:

Images of my artwork can be seen on my website www.joliegoodman.co.uk/ and you can see my artworkwork in on Instagram @jolie.goodman.

July 2023- live drawing and graphicing at the Sexuality & Social Work Conference, University of Strathclyde.

June 2023 – live drawing and graphicing at the Joint Social Work & Education Conference, University of Strathclyde.

June 2023- Made digitally drawings in response to quotes from first responders about their experiences of trauma for the University of Strathclyde.

May 2023 – digitally drew characters for a film made by Flexible Films for the Social Care Institute for Excellence <https://www.scie.org.uk/co-production/what-how>

July 2022 -March 2023 Artist on a project funded by Motability with the Mental Health Foundation making digital drawing exploring the impact on menta health of using public transport. Working with people with a diagnosis of distress, new mothers & people living with dementia.

Summer 2022. Her book the Covid Drawings was exhibited in Life in the Age of Covid Exhibition at the St Pancreas Hospital. Jolie was featured in the film, Life in the Age of Covid which won Best Short Environmental in the Paris Women film festival 2022

Summer 2022 Painting in the RA Summer Show.

2021-2 Worked both as an artist and in the project team with the University of Strathclyde, on a peer research project into the experience of people now in later life who had been bereaved by suicide.

Dec 2019 -present #1872/days of Tory Government a daily digital drawing where I record and reflect with humour over the potential five years, shown on Instagram. Jolie self-published the book, The Covid Drawing 2020 in January 2021.

Dec 2019-Feb 2020 Swimming in the Slow Lane, Digital prints and new paintings, JAGS Sports \centre, North Dulwich.

May 2019 Exhibition, Swimming in the Slow Lane, Digital prints, East Dulwich Leisure Centre.

March 2019. Life drawing workshop. People in Later Life, Newport

July & September 2018 drawing for films the four stories of people who didn't want to be filmed for the organisation Together for Mental Wellbeing. The films were focusing on people with mental health issues' experiences of the Criminal Justice System <https://www.together-uk.org/mental-distress-and-criminal-justice-film/>

October 2018. Workshop for people with dementia, Notting Hill Genesis Housing Trust and Koppel Project Gallery

July 2018. Workshop with young women who were refugees and mothers to explore the struggles of becoming a parent in a country you are a refugee in.

October 2017 permanent installation digital drawings. Reflecting on Swimming, in entrance of the Salomon's Centre, Canterbury Christ Church University, Tunbridge Wells.

January - February 2017 Maybe 51 digital drawings, 51 digital drawings one for each year of my life to mark turning 50.

2016: December 2016 led an art workshop to creatively evaluate a self-management course at Parc Prison Wales for MHF

Summer 2016 – digitally illustrated graphic book chapter My Memories of the Campaign for Women only Wards for Social policy first hand; an international introduction into participatory social welfare. Middlesex University published in 2018.

June 2016-dementia art workshop, Notting hill Housing Trust, Bow Art's Nunnery Gallery

March 2016- digital drawing for guide, Thinking Ahead aimed at people with learning disabilities and those supporting them, Foundation for People with Learning Disabilities

January 2014 - present illustrator for Lancet Psychiatry magazine

September 2014-December 2014 produced illustrations for Mental Health Foundation for a book chapter on Peer Support & Self-Management

May-July 2013 co-produced text and drawings for booklet I didn't Know I was a young carer, Action for Children

February 2013 drawings produced to support training materials, The Centre for Parent and Child Support

July 2011. Artist in Residence, 5th International Social Work Conference, Institute of Psychiatry London; Produced a series of drawings as a visual evaluation of the day to be used on the IOP website and in the write up of the Conference.

March 2011. Made a series of drawings on camera for the film, Nobody Says Congratulations, depicting the experience of parents' who use mental health services.

June 2009. Artistic commission I designed and produced the cover image for National Mental Health Development Unit Report, Unfinished Business

April 2008. Artistic commission: cover images and illustrations for the CSIP and NIME publication Informed Gender Practice: Mental Health Care that Works for Women

November 2007. Rebels and Troublemakers portraits exhibited at the GLA, London Bridge. 2005-07. Portraits of Camila Batmanghelidjh founder Kid's Company, Brian Haw peace campaigner and Helen John peace activist. 2006 portrait of Walter Wolfgang

April 2005. Jill of the Green exhibition with three other artists of drawings and paintings, at the White Rock Theatre, Hastings

Dec 1999 – Nov 2000. Artist madly famous / madly deadly famous: portraits of celebrity psychiatric service users past & present including TV presenter Trisha Goddard and actress, Denise Welsh. Exhibited at National Mind, Stratford Picture House London, The Assembly House, Norwich and the Film house, Edinburgh.

Oct 1998 – Dec 1999 Artist A Portrayal of the Psychiatric System, 30 portraits of 15 people representing the hierarchy of the Hospital, five Trust board members including the Chief Executive, five employees including a psychiatrist and five users, installed in the boardroom of the Maudsley Hospital, till 2009.

JOLIE GOODMAN, MENTAL HEALTH CAREER SUMMARY

July 2022 – present. Freelance Associate of Co-production Works. Leading co-production on the TAPPI Project, amplifying tenants and staff voices in the testing of digital technology in later life housing.

April 2018 – July 2022 Mental Health Foundation 4 days/week. Programmes Manager for Empowerment & Later Life managing & developing new projects from mid-later life. Currently working with partners in Cancer Support UK, Novus prison education, veterans, the arts and later life housing sector. Managed a Big Lottery funded £300K project Standing Together facilitating group for tenants in retirement & extra care housing schemes to address loneliness and improving well-being.

2015-2017 co-author of South London & Maudsley Trust Family Strategy.

February 2014 – January 2015. Interim Co-Director job share responsible for the operational management of Lambeth and Southwark Mind: managing, supervising staff, finances, fundraising, monitoring, liaising with the Executive Committee, partnership working with other mental health providers and leading a culture of co-production.

May 2012 – September 2014 South East London Self-management Project Manager, a partnership between Lambeth and Southwark Mind, Mental Health Foundation and South London & Maudsley Trust: training and supervising trainers with lived experience of using mental health services, adapting existing self-management courses to be appropriate for women and BAME groups.

December 2011 – February 2015 Peer Support Manager Lambeth and Southwark Mind: Managing and facilitating fortnightly peer support groups,

January 2011 - December 2012 Project Managing Parents' Groups SLaM, in partnership with Southwark Mind: outreach, coordination and group facilitation

September 2010 - April 2011. Video/Film Project Manager on a film for Southwark Mind and South London and Maudsley Trust of parents' experiences of the mental health system. Fund raised for and coordinating in collaboration with a director a 12-minute film for staff, to increase understanding of parental experiences within the mental health system,

January 2011 – January 2012 Women's Development Worker, Southwark Mind Project managing and facilitating the Women's Forum, an initiative designed to support individual members, to end social isolation and to increase self- parents' groups, attending Westminster briefings on parental mental health, and speaking at conferences. February 2010 - January 2011 Joint Manager Southwark Mind (Acting) Executive Committee support, managing staff and evaluating projects, finance and fundraising.

October 2010 and 2009 Trainer for the Family Partnership Model with the Centre for Parent and Child Support: Designed and delivered training for adult mental health workers aimed to increase their awareness of child development and the tasks of parenting, to enable them to work in genuine partnerships with the parents using mental health services. January 2013 developed illustrations to support the training.

2006 - 2010 Consultant: South London and Maudsley Trust advising the Trust on an audit on choice in adult mental health services co-authored the Choice Strategy.

May 2005 - 2006 Trainer for Inequality Agenda working with staff to improve their practice when supporting women with mental health needs; employed by Hampshire Partnership NHS Trust, Southampton and Springfield Hospital.

November 2004 - February 2010 Women's Development Worker, Southwark Mind.

JOLIE GOODMAN EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Sept 1987 - July 1988: Foundation Course Camberwell School of Art.

Sept 1988 – Sepy1992: BA AND MA in Fine Art Chelsea School of Art & Design
